1. The following designations were assigned 11 July 1958 to avoid a possible area of confusion which may result from the current development of the RS-16, High Speed and Sub-base Communications System project. Effective this date, the various production modifications may be distinguished as follows:

RS-16 . . . Original prototype, high-speed, QFM agent set with keyboard coder.

RS-16A . . . Modified high speed agent set with redesigned power supply and receiver. Six sets contracted for and delivered by
